ACT No. OF 1948

An Act for imposing certain restrictions on habitual offenders in the Province of Madras

WHEREAS it is expedient to impose certain restrictions on habitual offenders in the Province of Madras; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Madras Restriction of Habitual Offenders Act, 1948.

(2) It extends to the whole of the State of Delhi.

2. Definition.—In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

(4) "habitual offender" means a person who, before or after the commencement of this Act, has been sentenced to a substantive term of imprisonment, such sentence not having been set aside in appeal or revision, or not less than three occasions, for one or another of the offences under the Indian Penal Code (Central Act XLV of 1860) set forth in the Schedule, each of the subsequent sentences having been passed in respect of an offence committed after the passing of the sentence on the previous occasion;

Explanation.—The passing of an order requiring a person to give security for good behaviour with reference to section 119 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Central Act V of 1898), shall be deemed to amount to the passing of a sentence of substantive imprisonment within the meaning of this clause.

(5) "notification" means a notification published in the Gazette of India;

(6) "notified offender" means a habitual offender in respect of whom a notification has been issued under section 3 and is in force;

(7) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(8) "settlement" means a settlement established or deemed to be established under section 8.

NOTIFICATION OF OFFENDERS AND RESTRICTIONS OF THEIR MOVEMENTS

3. Power of Government to notify habitual offenders.—(1) The Chief Commissioner may, by notification—

- (a) if he is satisfied that any person is a habitual offender, declare that he shall be subject to the provisions of this Act to such extent and subject to such restrictions, if any, as may be specified in the notification;
- (b) cancel or modify any such declaration.

(2) Before any notification is issued in respect of any person under sub-section (1), clause (a), or modified to his disadvantage under sub-section (1), clause (b), a reasonable opportunity shall be given to him to show cause against such issue or modification.

4. Delegation of powers to District Magistrate.—The Chief Commissioner may, by notification, delegate his powers under section 3 to a District Magistrate, in respect of persons ordinarily residing in the district, subject to such restrictions and conditions as may be specified in the notification and subject also to control and revision by them.

5. Notified offenders to intimate residence and change of residence.—Every notified offender shall intimate to such authority and in such manner as may be prescribed, his place of residence, every change or intended change thereof, and every absence or intended absence therefrom :

Provided that the District Magistrate or any officer authorized by him may exempt any such offender from reporting any temporary absence or intended absence from his residence, not exceeding such limit as may be prescribed.

6. Power to restrict movements of notified offenders.—(1) If in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner it is expedient to do so, he may, by notification, declare that any notified offender shall be restricted in his movements to a specified area.

(2) Before making any such declaration, the Chief Commissioner shall consider—

- (i) the nature of the offences, if any, of which the offender has been convicted and the circumstances in which they were committed;
- (ii) whether the offender follows any lawful occupation, and whether such occupation is a real one or merely a pretence for facilitating the commission of offences;
- (iii) the suitability of the area to which his movements are to be restricted;
- (iv) the manner in which it is proposed that he should earn his living in such area, and the adequacy of the arrangements therefor.

7. Power to cancel or alter such restrictions.—The Chief Commissioner may, by notification, cancel any declaration made under section 6 or alter any area notified under that section or this section; and the District Magistrate may, by order in writing alter any area notified under section 6 or this section into any other area situated in the district :

Provided that before issuing any such notification or order, the Government or the District Magistrate shall consider the matters referred to in section 6, sub-section (2), in so far as they may be applicable.

SETTLEMENTS

8. Power to place notified offenders in settlement.—The Chief Commissioner may establish industrial, agricultural or reformatory settlements and may order any notified offender to be placed in any such settlement.

9. Power to discharge or transfer persons from settlements.—The Chief Commissioner or any officer authorized by him may at any time, by order, direct any notified offenders who may be in a settlement to be discharged, or transferred to any other settlement.

10. Power to subject voluntary residents in settlements to restrictions and penalties.—The Chief Commissioner may, by order, direct that any person voluntarily residing in any settlement shall be subject to all or any of the restrictions and penalties imposed by or under this Act on a notified offender placed in such settlement.

RULES

11. Power to make rules.—(1) The Chief Commissioner may make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for or regulate—

- (a) all matters required or allowed by this Act to be prescribed;
- (b) the restrictions to be observed by notified offenders in respect of whom notifications or orders have been issued under section 6 or section 7;
- (c) the grant of certificates of identity to notified offenders, and the inspection of such certificates;
- (d) the conditions under which notified offenders may be permitted to leave the area to which their movements are restricted or the places in which they are settled;
- (e) the inspection of the residences of notified offenders;
- (f) the terms upon which notified offenders may be discharged from the operation of this Act;
- (g) the management and supervision of settlements including the discipline and conduct of the persons placed in them;
- (h) the periodical review of the cases of all persons who have been placed in any settlement under this Act.

(3) All rules made under this section shall be published in the Gazette of India and upon such publication shall have effect as if enacted in this Act.

PENALTIES AND PROCEDURE

12. Any notified offender who contravenes any of the provisions of this Act or any notification, rule or order made thereunder shall be punishable—

- (a) on a first conviction, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with both;
- (b) on a second or subsequent conviction, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both;

13. Arrest of notified offenders.—If a notified offender—

- (a) is found outside the area to which his movements have been restricted, in contravention of the conditions under which he is permitted to leave such area, or

- (b) escapes from any settlement in which he has been placed,

he may be arrested without warrant by any police officer, village headman or village-watchman if the offender is arrested, he shall be informed, as soon as may be of the grounds for such arrest and shall be produced before the nearest Magistrate within a period of twenty-four hours of such arrest, excluding the time necessary for the journey from the place of arrest to the court of the Magistrate and the offender shall not be detained beyond the said period without the authority of a Magistrate. The Magistrate shall, on production of the offender and on proof of the facts, order him to be removed to such area or to such settlement, there to be dealt with in accordance with this Act and any rules made thereunder.

14. Rules for the removal of prisoners to apply in certain cases.—Every law or rule for the time being in force governing the removal of prisoners shall apply to persons ordered to be placed in a settlement under section 8 or to be removed under section 13:

Provided that no order from the Chief Commissioner or the Inspector-General of Prisons shall be necessary for the removal of such persons.

MISCELLANEOUS

15. Bar of jurisdiction.—No Court shall question the validity of any notification (other than one under section 3); or order, issued under this Act.

16. Effect of certain orders passed under Criminal Tribes Act, 1924 etc.—(1) In respect of every person who stood registered under the Criminal Tribes Act, 1924 (Central Act VI of 1924) (hereinafter in this section referred to as the said Act) at the commencement of this Act and who, within a period of five years immediately preceding such commencement, had been either ordered to give security for good behaviour with reference to section 110 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Central Act of 1898) or convicted of an offence under section 24 of the said Act or of a non-bailable offence under any other law, a notification shall be deemed to have been issued under section 3, sub-section (1), of this Act, declaring him to be subject to all the provisions of this Act; and this Act shall apply to every such person accordingly.

(3) Any notification or order issued or made under the said Act in respect of any person referred to in sub-section (1) and in force at the commencement of this Act, restricting the movements of such person or placing him in a settlement shall be deemed to have been issued or made under this Act.

(4) All settlements established under section 18 of the said Act and existing at the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been established under Section 8 of this Act.

MINISTRY OF FOOD AND AGRICULTURE*New Delhi, the 10th December 1951*

S.R.O. 2035.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 3 of Essential Supplies (Temporary Powers) Act, 1946 (XXIV of 1946), the Central Government hereby makes the following Order:—

1. (1) This order may be called the Sugar and Gur (Futures and Options) (Prohibition) Order, 1951.

(2) It extends to the whole of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

2. In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires—

(a) "Sugar" means (i) any form of sugar containing more than 90 per cent. of sucrose; (ii) any sugar of crystalline structure;

(b) "Gur" means the article commonly known as gur, gul, jaggery, shakkar or rab, and includes raw sugar or uncrystallised sugar in any other form composed of original and convertible molasses and other impurities, inherent or foreign, and prepared by boiling cane juice;

(c) "futures in sugar or gur" means any agreement relating to the purchase or sale of sugar or gur providing for delivery at some future date or payment of margin on such date or dates as may be expressly or impliedly agreed upon by the parties;

(d) "margin" means the difference between the price specified in an agreement relating to the purchase or sale of sugar or gur and the prevailing market price for the same quality and quantity of sugar or gur on a particular day;

(e) "option in sugar or gur" means an agreement for the purchase or sale of a right to buy or a right to sell, or a right to buy and sell, any sugar or gur in future, and includes a teji, a mandi and a teji-mandi in any sugar or gur.

3. After the commencement of this Order no person shall—

(a) save with the permission of the Central Government or of an officer authorised by the Central Government in this behalf, enter into any futures in sugar or gur, or pay, or receive, or agree to pay or receive, any margin in connection with any such futures;

(b) enter into any option in sugar or gur.

Provided that any contracts for the sale and purchase of sugar or gur of specific qualities or types, and for specific delivery at a specified price, which are not transferable to third parties, shall not be affected by this Order.

4. Any option in sugar or gur entered into before the commencement of this Order and remaining to be performed whether wholly or in part shall be void within the meaning of the Indian Contract Act, 1872, and shall not be enforceable by law.

5. No person being the owner or occupier of any premises shall knowingly permit such premises to be used—

(a) for the making of any future or option in sugar or gur or the payment or receipt of any margins in contravention of clause 3, or

(b) for the performance of any option in sugar or gur declared void by clause 4.

6. The Central Government or the State Government may by notification in the Official Gazette appoint such persons as it thinks fit to be Inspectors for the purposes of this Order within such local limits as it may assign to them respectively.

7. An Inspector appointed in pursuance of clause 6 may, within the local limits assigned to him:

(a) enter and inspect, with such assistants, if any, as he thinks fit, any premises used or believed to be used for the making or performance of futures or options in sugar or gur or the payment or receipt of margins;

(b) require the owner, occupier or other person in charge of the premises to produce any books, accounts or other documents relating to such transactions;

- (c) take or cause to be taken extracts from or copies of any documents relating to such transactions which are produced before him or otherwise found in the premises.

8. The Sugar (Futures and Options) (Prohibition) Order, 1949, is hereby repealed except as respects things done or omitted to be done.
